One Volunteer’s Worth:

One volunteer can make a huge difference!
Volunteers don’t get paid, not because they’re worthless, but because they’re priceless.

Gain A Volunteer Program
A solid volunteer program begins by looking inside, not outside.
1. Why do we want and need volunteers?
2. Where and when will we use volunteers?
3. Who will oversee volunteers and volunteer processes?
4. What is required for volunteers? Of our organization?
5. How will you manage the entire volunteer program?

Obtaining Volunteers

Keys To Recruitment:
Respond Immediately
Listen Intently
Communicate Clearly
Promote Continuously
"Never doubt that a small group of concerned citizens can change the world. Indeed it's the only thing that ever has."

- Margaret Mead

Maintaining/Retaining Volunteers
Maintaining/Retaining Volunteers

How to properly maintain:

- Check-In with individuals
- Calibrate as a group
- Celebrate as an organization
- Champion with everyone
“It is not enough to be busy... The question is: what are we busy about?”

– Henry David Thoreau
Nobody is too busy. It’s just a matter of priorities. If they want to find time for you, they will.
